

An Act to Make Te Reo Maori, English and German official Languages of the Kingdom of Zealandia.

Be it Enacted by His Majesty King Anthony King of Zealandia as follows:-

Part one:

- 1) This act shall be cited as The Languages act 2010
- 2) This act shall enter into effect no less than 1 hour after receiving Royal Assent.

Part two:

- 1) English shall be the primary domestic language used by His Majesty's Zealandian Government and all other institutions within the Kingdom.
- 2) Te Reo Maori shall be the secondary language used domestically and during diplomacy with other nations located within the New Zealand Archipelago
- 3) His Majesty's Zealandian Government shall ensure the Promotion of Te Reo Maori within the Kingdom of Zealandia.
- 4) German shall be the tertiary domestic language used within the kingdom and His Majesty's Zealandian Government shall promote the use of German where applicable.
- 5) Only English and Te Reo Maori may be used within the National Parliament and the Kingdom of Zealandia Defence Force and The Royal Zealandia Constabulary

Part three:

- 1) English shall be the Primary Language used when His Majesty's Zealandian Government and other Zealandian institutions are dealing with diplomacy or other international and intermicronational affairs

- 2) German shall be the Secondary Language used His Majesty's Zealandian Government and other Zealandian institutions are dealing with diplomacy or other international and intermicronational affairs
- 3) English shall be the primary language on all passports issued by The Monarch
- 4) German shall be the Secondary Language on all passports issued by the Monarch
- 5) Maori Shall not appear on any Zealandian Passport unless The Monarch has given permission for this to happen for a single passport, when permission is granted the German Text shall be replaced with Maori text